Law at VU
The law courses offered at VU point to all facets of the legal sector including legal practice, legal administration, management or specialist roles. The flexible pathways give students more options to achieve their goals at their own pace. VU’s Victoria Law School also equips graduates for success in the real world through its excellent moot program. VU’s City Queen campus is right in the middle of Melbourne’s legal precinct, giving students excellent access to the courts and legal libraries.
VU’s Bachelor of Laws places a lot of emphasis on professional workplace-based activities where our students have opportunities to develop real-world skills. The Magistrates Court program, County Court program, Sunshine Youth Legal Centre work placement and the BLB1103 Law in Practice learning module are designed to give students an edge in a highly competitive employment marketplace. Students develop crucial training in advocacy, ethical judgement, communication, legal research and writing, interviewing and negotiation and computing skills – in real workplaces, and often with real clients.
