- ✓ Certificate III Commercial Cookery
- ✓ Certificate III in Tourism
- ✓ Diploma of Hospitality
- ✓ Diploma of Travel and Tourism

➤ New Bachelor Degrees from 2016

1. Bachelor of Foodies Studies

William Angliss Institute introduced the new Bachelor of Food Studies this year, and this degree is the first of its kind in Australia.

The focus of the course is to examine the complex relationship involved in developing healthy, sustainable, ethical food systems which deliver high-quality products from local paddock to global plate.

Students will also have the option to complete a fourth year of study specialising in Community Engagement. Students will work with an organisation to develop a research project in areas of food policy, food culture, sustainability and ethical food systems.

Graduates will combine their specialist food knowledge with business skills to enter a career as managers of sustainable food business, community engagement and food policy.
