News from RMIT University

Recently RMIT University decided to make two name changes to two courses: The Bachelor of Science (Geospatial) will change its title to the Bachelor of Science \(Geospatial\) \(Honours\) and the Bachelor of Applied Science (Surveying) will change its title to Bachelor of Applied Science \(Surveying\) \(Honours\). With these changes both programs will include a research element and will be in line with AQF 8 qualification.

Army Aviation

An army aviation unit is an aviation-related unit of a nation's army, often described as an air corps. These units are generally separate from a nation's dedicated air force, and usually comprise helicopters and light support fixed-wing aircraft.

The Australian Army Aviation (AAAvn) Corps operates various types of aircraft including the Sikorsky S70A-9 Black Hawk, Boeing CH-47D Chinook, Bell 206B-1 Kiowa, ARH Tiger, MRH90 Troop Lift Helicopter, and civil helicopter training aircraft.

Antipodeans Abroad

Are you unsure what to do once you finish Year 12? Perhaps you are unsure what you want to study at university or TAFE? Perhaps you want to consider taking a GapBreak. Antipodeans Abroad invites students to join their GapBreak program, a 3-6 month volunteer placement in a developing country. Visit Antipodeans Abroad GapBreak

Gap Medics

Our programs offer students interested in healthcare a genuine insight into the hospital work of doctors and nurses in Tanzania, Zanzibar, Thailand and the Czech Republic.

Gap Medics are offering an exciting project for students that are looking to apply for university courses in medicine, nursing, dentistry or midwifery. Gap Medics is a provider of short-term healthcare work experience placements abroad.

Although based in the UK, its programs are open to students from all around the world. This organisation is dedicated to arranging hospital work experience placements for students who are applying to medical or nursing school in particular.

So, what does the project involve? During weekdays, students shadow highly skilled doctors in their day-to-day work on a fully-supervised hospital placement. Students will also have the benefit of clinical teaching, safe and secure accommodation, food, transfers in Tanzania or Thailand, local orientations, 24/7 support from Gap Medics support teams overseas and in the UK and lots of help with preparations for their trip too.

Visit Gap Medics to find out more!

LATTITUDE. Lattitude Global Volunteering

Lattitude Global Volunteering (formerly Gap Activity Projects) has been offering international volunteering and gap year projects for 17-25 year olds, for over 35 years. A diverse range of projects are on offer in Asia/Pacific, or further afield in Europe, the Americas and Africa.

Lattitude Volunteers...

- are not tourists; they immerse themselves in the local culture, become members of that community, and they learn about a country from within
- step outside their comfort zone and achieve something unique
- experience life, living and new horizons

Applications for 2016 are already open! Visit Lattitude Global Volunteering to find out more!

GAP Year through Tutors Worldwide

There are many different ways in which a GAP Year can be organised. Tutors Worldwide offers students the opportunity to work in an overseas school environment at either prep or secondary (high) school. Currently Tutors Worldwide recruits for (both senior and junior) schools in the UK, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, and from among students in the same countries, incorporating personal visits to all countries.

For more information or to download the application form, visit Tutors Worldwide. A reminder that applications close 9 April 2015.

Volunteer Abroad with WEP

World Education Program (WEP) Australia is now offering a range of international programs for people over the age of 18! Programs include volunteer and conservation projects, work & travel and internships, teaching English overseas, international language study and language & volunteer packages.

WEP's GAP programs bring together volunteers from all over the world to help communities in need, and volunteers learn:

- to work through the various challenges of adapting to a new culture
- mature, gain more confidence and develop greater self-awareness
- gain a better understanding of the world and international relations
- develop a much more worldly, focused and determined approach to life once back in Australia

Find out more by visiting Volunteer Abroad or call 1300 884 733.

ADF GAP YEAR

FILL IN THE GAP

EXPERIENCE ONE EXTRAORDINARY YEAR IN THE AUSTRALIAN DEFENCE FORCE

The advertisement features a young woman in a green and brown camouflage military uniform, smiling and standing in front of a large white military aircraft. The background is a bright blue sky with scattered white clouds. The text 'ADF GAP YEAR' is at the top, 'FILL IN THE GAP' is in large bold letters in the middle, and 'EXPERIENCE ONE EXTRAORDINARY YEAR IN THE AUSTRALIAN DEFENCE FORCE' is at the bottom.

The ADF Gap Year program provides an opportunity for young Australians, who have finished Year 12 (or equivalent) and are aged between 17 and 24*, to experience military training and lifestyle whilst gaining new skills and pay over their Gap Year. The life skills and job training that students acquire during their Gap Year experience will be valuable regardless of what career you ultimately undertake. Gap Year opportunities are available in the Navy, Army and Air
