So, you want to teach in Victoria?

Teachers in Victoria work in government, Catholic and independent schools. Every teacher undertaking the duties of a teacher in a Victorian school must be registered with the Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT). It is important when choosing a teaching course at university that students ensure that the course is approved by VIT thus ensuring that, on graduation, students are eligible to apply for registration with VIT and enter the teaching profession. To find out which universities offer VIT approved courses, visit

<http://www.vit.vic.edu.au/finditfast/Teacher-education-programs/Pages/Approvedteachereducationprograms.aspx>

In summary, teaching courses offered at the following institutions are endorsed so students can rest assured they are making the right choice!

DEAKIN Which Deakin University Campus fits You?

The Melbourne Campus at Burwood is Deakin's thriving metropolitan Campus, attracting more than 23 000 on-campus students. This campus boasts open and inviting spaces for socialising and studying, innovative architecture, spacious new buildings and wireless hotspots.

Deakin's Geelong Campus at Waurin Ponds is located on the western edge of Geelong. The campus features expansive landscaped grounds and extensive sporting facilities. The campus is home to the Geelong Technology Precinct, which provides research and development capabilities and opportunities for university-industry partnerships and new enterprises in the region.

Deakin's Geelong Waterfront Campus is located on the foreshore of Corio Bay in the central business district of Geelong. Originally built as wool stores in 1893, the buildings have been extensively renovated to create a modern and impressive campus centre.

Deakin's Warrnambool Campus is set on the banks of the picturesque Hopkins River, close to local surf beaches and popular tourist attractions, with all the facilities of a regional centre. The campus is a friendly, close-knit community, with a personal and informal relationship between students and staff. On-campus facilities include a comprehensive library, excellent teaching and learning spaces, health care services, café, gym, bookshop, social areas, basketball, netball and tennis courts, and a golf course.

For more information on these Campuses, visit www.deakin.edu.au/campuses

The University of Otago – Quick Facts

- At the University of Otago, students have the option to study courses in Science, Health Sciences, Humanities and Commerce
- Students join a diverse population of well over 20,000 students from around New Zealand and more than 90 nations around the world
- The University of Otago has 15 well-appointed and friendly residential colleges
- Of particular significance to Australian citizens and permanent residents of Australia is that these students study as domestic students while in New Zealand, meaning that Australian citizens and permanent residents pay the same fees as New Zealand citizens*
- For further information about the fees of various courses, visit <http://www.otago.ac.nz/study/fees/>
- Minimum ATAR of 74 is required for consideration for entry

*While Australian citizens and permanent residents pay domestic fees when studying at a New Zealand university, they are subjected to a three-year stand-down period, meaning they will have to live in New Zealand for at least three years and be an ordinary resident in New Zealand before they will be eligible for a New Zealand Student Loan – visit www.studylink.govt.nz for more information.
