News from Monash University

➤ Enrol in a Monash MOOC

Do you want a taste of what it's like to study at Monash University? How about enrolling in a Monash MOOC (Massive Open Online Course).

Monash will offer a number of MOOCs through FutureLearn this year, providing anyone with internet access the opportunity to study with Monash. MOOCs are a great way for prospective students, parents and teachers to connect with Monash and gain an understanding of the university learning style whilst pursuing an old or new interest. Best of all, online learning can be done at a time that suits the student! All courses are free to study, between 5-7 weeks in length, and will involve an approximate 3-4 hours of study per week. Upon successful completion of in-course tests students will be eligible for a Certificate of Participation.

Note: Successful completion of a course cannot be counted as credit towards a Monash University degree.

A list of some MOOCs are listed below -

Do your interests lie in Engineering, Architecture or Geography?
